Dear Ms. Castellano,

We write on behalf of Mr. Joseph Warn. We understand that he has previously requested that his mandatory check-ins take place at his residence as a reasonable accommodation for his disability. Currently, Mr. Warn must walk over 4.5 miles each way to your office in order to attend his check-ins. This poses a significant hardship to Mr. Warn because of his diagnosed sciatica and lower back pain, as well as his diagnosed mental disabilities.

We write to again request that Mr. Warn is provided with at-home or virtual check-ins as a reasonable accommodation for his disabilities. Should your office be unable to accommodate either of these specific proposals, we invite you to contact us to discuss how Mr. Warn's disabilities can be accommodated. Failure to provide reasonable accommodations for disabled people on parole and probation may be violative of the Americans with Disabilities Act, 42 U.S.C. § 12101 et seq., Section 504 of the Rehabilitation Act, 29 U.S.C. § 701 et seq., and the New York State Human Rights Law, N.Y. Exec. Law § 290 et seq.

Please feel free to contact us with any questions or concerns.

Sincerely,

Maureen Hussain, Esq.,
